Medical.

Hoofland's German Bitters,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

Hoofland's German Bitters
Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.
Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.
Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.
The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:
Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.
The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skilfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
PREPARED BY Dr. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.
Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.
These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,
Resulting from any Cause whatever;
PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM,
induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, etc.
There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.
PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,
And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instill new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.
It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.
To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN
Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.
Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.
HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Penna., writes:
Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.
"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD."

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.
"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, I can certify this from my experience of it.
Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON."

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates st.

FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL,
Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.
I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours, truly,
E. D. FENDALL.

ESCAPED FROM MILLEN—1864.

A RALLYING SONG FOR 1868.

BY J. HOWARD WERT.

Within the glades of ivy vine
 The hunted heroes lay,
And heard beyond the swamp's confine
 The dreaded blood-hound's bay.

"Our time is short," one faint voice said,
 "To-day we've done our best,
Ere seeks yon level sun its bed
 Our souls will be at rest:

No mercy knows the rebel horde,
 That swiftly follows on;
But still I pray to Thee, O Lord,
 'Thy will, not mine, be done.'"

"My mother weeps for me to-day,"
 Said one with golden hair;
And long she'll weep, and watch, and pray,
 For him so young and fair.

Sweet sisters in a northern home
 Will watch and wait in vain,
And longing, look for him to come,
 They'll never see again.

Too surely, with prophetic words,
 They've told their death-knell story;
An hour—and points of rebel swords
 With patriot blood were gory.

Thus died 'neath shades of ivy vine,
 In damp and dark morass,
Where noxious plants luxuriant twine
 Upon the knotted grass—

The heroes of a nobler line
 Than Sparta ever bore—
The patriots of that stormy time,
 Our world-deciding war.

No monuments above them stand,
 The swamp—their only bier;
Their praise—they saved our native land;
 Their epitaph—a tear.

* * * * * *

At last—at last—the gods pay well;
 Give to the winds the story,
And let our future annals tell
 Of Appomatox's glory.

Yes, peal the bell and bray the horn,
 Unloose the dull throat cannon,
And give to kiss of sunlit morn
 Our nation's starry pennon.

Rejoice! rejoice! as well ye may,
 For victory great and grand;
Let priest in prayer and poet's lay
 Thank God, who saved our land.

Yet, comrades in that sacred cause,
 Ye dare not to forget
The brave within that dark morass,
 Whose life-blood warm and wet,

That beauteous eve, beneath God's sky,
 Was shed by Treason's hand—
The Heroes, who went forth to die
 For Freedom pure and grand:

That gentle youth, with raven hair,
 Beneath the ivy vine,
Who breathed to Thee, O! God, the prayer,
 "Thy will be done, not mine."

Nor yet again that other boy—
 (A man in thought and pain),
Whose blood told out a mother's joy,
 Who ne'er will smile again.

Nor yet alone in Georgian swamps
 And darkly dismal glen,
Where died the men, that fled the damps
 Of Millen's prison-pen,

Were slain the martyred pioneers
 Of Freedom's second birth,
Which yet shall give in future years
 New life to all the earth.

Those glorious cohorts of the North
 Have fed our fields of grain;
And many, who went gayly forth,
 Now sleep on Shiloh's plain.

And some on Groveton's sunny slopes,
 Along the Rapidan,
And in the wilderness the hopes
 Of many an aged one.

Then, brothers, let that blood cement
 Our hearts and hopes again,
So that we never may lament—
 "The dead have died in vain."

[For the Star and Sentinel.

THE REBEL DEAD AT GETTYSBURG.

To do honor to the dead is our noblest privilege; sacrilegiously to disturb their dust, our meanest crime. If the grave of a friend is a spot where the holiest affections of the heart are manifested, that of an enemy furnishes no pretext for violence. At the one, the labors of love and marks of reverence should never cease; whilst the nobler promptings of our nature ask for the other an humble resting-place and "a little earth for charity." "De mortuis nil nisi bonum," is the talisman that arrests the course of revenge, transforming hatred into pity and restraining the hand stretched over a vanquished foe from insult and injury.

The American pilgrim strolling over the peaceful fields of Gettysburg has his attention directed to lowly mounds, verdant though neglected and uncared for. Here, in their seclusion, rest the rebel dead. The Government they attempted to destroy, and the people whose peace they threatened with anarchy, must leave them where and as they fell, with the brier and wild flower to entwine and protect. The inheritance purchased for us belonged to them, but they forfeited it.—A look of pity for their blindness, a throb of horror at the contemplation of the goal they wished to reach, and an assurance that, for the sake of the distant past and the memory of our common ancestors, the hand that outrages as well as the one that decorates shall be withheld, are all that they now deserve—all that can be given. Some, devoid of every fine thought and feeling; others for the gratification of an idle curiosity; and still more, thinking it can be done with impunity, trifle with these helpless handfuls of dust scattered here and there, and removed by the sympathizing sod from the cruel gaze of men, upon the very spots on which they died. At the approach of every such, these dumb mouths should open and cry,—

> "Good friend, for Jesus' sake forbear
> To dig the dust enclosed here;
> Blessed be he that spares these stones,
> And curs'd be he that moves my bones,"—

thus insuring quiet for themselves, as it has for the illustrious band lying in the peaceful parish church upon the banks of the Avon.

Let the impious hand, that tears from their last resting-place these harmless remains, pause and consider what they are and whence they came. They are the mouldering remnants of a stranger, fallen in a strange land, far from home and kindred, buried where no loving hand can ever plant ever-greens upon his grave, sleeping where the mournful eye can never drop upon it the silent tear of affection, and resting with the forbearance of the people as the only hope of permanent repose. Let him remember that their nameless bodies are to be added to the already crowded list of the unknown dead, and that they are to be classed with the unrecognized bones that have bleached upon earth's battle-fields and rotted in the catacombs of Egypt and aqueducts of Rome. The unhewn earth is their sarcophagus, their only mark the verdant turf, and their requiems sung by Nature's choir. The living, for their crimes against government, should tread the winepress alone, and humbly bow as Nemesis, in righteous wrath, comes with the rod of affliction. The dead have paid the penalty, and if their spirits were permitted to revisit the earth, and flit about the decaying bonds that once confined them, they might be heard whispering through the branches and in the breeze, not in anger, but in sadness—

> "Here let the wind sweep and the plover cry;
> But thou, go by."

AN ELEPHANT HUNT—EXCITING ADVENTURE IN ABYSSINIA.

R. BOUSTEAD, surgeon in the Abyssinia field force, writes from Attegerat to the Field, describing a days's elephant hunting in that vicinity:

I have just returned from a day's shooting in the Sowera Mountains, about thirteen miles east of Surroo, and I have made a splendid bag. No one who has not seen it would believe an elephant capable of scrambling up the wonderful, almost perpendicular places they pass with apparent facility. Their track over the edge of the rocks on the watershed of many of the hills were positively not more than twenty-four inches broad, with a sheer precipice falling eighty or one hundred feet below. One place had an uninterrupted fall of upwards of 500 feet into a dark, rocky, ugly chasm, where sunshine never entered. I was accompanied only by a Shohoe guide, a dhoolywallah, and my servant, a soldier of my regiment.

Well, it was about two o'clock P. M., and after crossing the fourth range, when I came in sight of the herd browsing on the prickly acacia and the mimosa on the edge of a very high hill. I reconnoitered their position well; they were five in number—two with large tusks, one with medium, and two without any preceptible. They were huge brutes, and seemed steadily ascending the hill, and I decided to go to a spot where they would meet me within a few yards. By signs and a smattering af Arabic I made my Shohoe companion understand this, and he managed his duty well. He brought me near the herd, and I then stalked the largest tusker to within ten yards, when he preceived me. He looked at me in a most threatening way, with his enormous ears erect, and stamped his foot in anger, when I sent a bullet smashing through his head, and dropped him instantly. The rush of the remainder of the herd was something terrible as they crashed through the jungle, levelling every thing before them. One of them passed close to where I was, and I gave him a right and left shot through the shoulder, both bullets well placed; but he kept on, until a third bullet from my little Mortimer (Enfield bore) brought him up, having mashed his shoulder to atoms.—He now saw where I was, and charged straight at me, but could not manage to get up the incline with his fractured leg. My Shohoe guide had in the meantime crossed the ravine to look at the dead one, and had taken a heavy rifle with him. In his delight at seeing the huge beast down, he commenced a wild war dance around the body, calling it all sorts of endearing epithets, in the middle of which his divertisement was suddenly stopped by an old bull elephant charging at him from above, through every obstacle, like a race-horse. I heard a loud scream for help, and saw the Shohoe literally flying before the enraged brute, who was coming at a terrible pace and gaining on him at every stride. He came straight towards me for protection, bringing the elephant down upon me also, and shrieking, "Abiet, abiet, mundelli!" ("Lord! master! save me!") he bolted for life up the narrow path on which I was standing, the elephant rushing after him full charge, and positively roaring in his rage like a gigantic lion, with his trunk elevated in the air. He (the Shohoe) dashed past me, and in doing so he hit me a fearful blow accidentally on the head with the spare rifle he had with him, and nearly toppled me over the precipice senseless. The blow quite staggered me for the moment, and I was within five yards of being crushed to pieces when I planted an Enfield-size bullet, also from my double Mortimer, slick through his brain, and dropped him dead within three paces of where I was standing. He fell over into the ravine below with an awful crash, carrying away a tree which he struck in his descent as if it had been a rotten reed. No sooner had this been done than another elephant saw us, and came tearing down upon us from a different direction, also carrying down every thing before it and blowing and trumpeting hideously. I received him at about twenty-five paces with a heavy ball in the head, very high. It had no effect; then gave him the left barrel, which was a little too low; it staggered him, and stopped his charge, making him swerve a little. On looking for my other rifle, I found the dhoolywallah and the Shohoe had enough of this; they had scrambled up some rocks above me, and had taken the rifle there. They chucked it down, and I caught it in the air as it fell, and gave the elephant a No. 12 through the shoulder, which disabled him.—He tried to get up to the path where I was standing, but tumbled back, and in his rage commenced smashing to pieces everything in his way, making fearful noises. It was a rare sight to witness his wonderful strength; he bore down trees of considerable thickness by sheer strength and weight of body, and smashed their branches into thousands of atoms. Every bit of jungle was knocked to smithereens and trampled to pieces all around him; and his vain endeavors to get at us, and his terrible rage at being foiled, were really most exciting to witness. He nearly succeeded in getting up the inclined to where I was when I gave him the last bullet I had. His legs gave way, he staggered back on his hocks, and then rolled over heavily with a terrrible groan. I can assure you I was thankful when it was all over, and that I was out of the row so well."

WHAT IT COSTS.—Over two thousand millions of dollars are paid in a single year in America for intoxicating spirits. This money, given for a year and a half into the United States Treasury, would extingush the National Debt. The Nation (Boston) says of these awful figures:—"Take this vast amount to pieces. It would purchase a navy of one hundred monitors, and two thousand war vessels, thoroughly equipped—the proudest armament that ever rode upon the seas. It would build a National Capitol worth one hundred million dollars, and a Capitol for every State in the Union worth fifty millions each. It would rear one hundred thousand houses of worship, at an expense of twenty thousand dollars each. It would pay the expenses of all the religious, charitable and benevolent societies in our land, including the ministry, Bible, Tract, Missionary Societies, etc., for the next fifty years—since all of these do not cost now over forty millions of dollars annually."

REMARKS OF HON. D. McCONAUGHY,

On the occasion of planting the National Flag inscribed with the names of Grant and Colfax, on the highest point of the line of the Pacific Railroad, May 25, 1868.

From the Cheyenne Leader.

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen: As an eminent American, when travelling in Europe, stood before an ancient archway, mossgrown and venerable with age and rendered illustrious by kingly traditions—as his guide recounted to him the crowned heads and sons of royalty who had passed beneath it, interrupting him, he exclaimed, "I am above all kings—I am an American citizen!" So, standing at the base of this grand old rock—this majestic monument of nature on this vast mountain height—and looking to its eastern slope, whence stretch away two thousand miles to the Atlantic coast, and then to its western slope, whence spreads an almost equal expanse to the Pacific shore—I am sure that every breast swells with a prouder emotion, which can only find utterance in the words, "I am above all kings—I am an American citizen!" And as we gaze up, an hundred feet, to where yon beautiful flag floats proudly in the mountain breeze, and read upon its folds the names of Grant and Colfax, I can not, nor can you, forget the consciousness of a grander swell in that emotion of honorable pride—for those names are the emblems of still greater triumphs in the giant progress of our land and nation. Grant! In that name is embodied a whole volume in American history. For, when treason in our very midst undertook, with fratricidal hand, to destroy the work of our fathers and the grand Union which they bequeathed us, the nations of the world were amazed at the spectacle. As if by magic, under the sacred impluse of patriotism, a million of men—not mercenary soldiery—but American volunteers—rose and rushed to the defence of our imperiled country. After four years of heroic struggle, victory crowned our arms. And who was the leader of those grand armies; who the mighty captain who thus led our sons and brothers to final and glorious triumph? It was the captain of the age—the leader we have chosen—whom we shall follow to victory.

The people of this country honor physical courage, and above all they admire the union of physical and moral courage—true, glorious patriotism. And they will honor themselves and the nation by placing in the Chair of State, as the highest public tribute of honor and grateful regard, that hero whose history is the very highest type and example of American patriotism.

With the name of Grant is associated, as the legend upon the flag which we have just flung to the glad and jubilant breeze, that other name, which, to you, my friends of the West, is a treasure, for it is part of yourselves, and of your history.

Colfax is of the West. His heart, his mind, his judgment, his all, have been devoted to its vast material, social and public interests.

Amid the onward march of civilization and enterprise, which are rushing up these slopes and over this grand mountain range, the name of Colfax is foremost—aye, in the very van. As I hear the coming tread of millions of intelligent freemen, amid this peaceful conquest of nature by art, his name is sounded among the treasured leaders—the bold, brave men whose keen foresight and manhood and courage have in the national councils, though the Government, secured to the enterprising emigrants the free homestead and this grand iron highway over which to enter into this promised land which streches around us like a new world.

I am sure that the West will respond to the call, as our leader shall beckon them on to the certain Republican victory of 1868. I am reminded of one of its honored members—my new friend, Mr. Baker, of the Cheyenne Leader—that one of the greatest agents, the one without which all else would be in vain, is the omnipotent and omnipresent press.—To him I say, all hail to that great power in American society. With the march of freedom and progress, with the whistle of the iron horse comes the printing press—the vigilant and all powerful press. Right here, at the last advancing surge of civilization—and right abreast with it, I hail the daily press—of which fraternity is our Colfax. I am sure they of the profession will not forget him.

Before we part, through my own, as the voice of the representatives of New Hampshire and Pennsylvania—the White Mountains and the Alleghanies send greeting to the Rocky Mountains the names of Grant and Colfax; and these majestic mountain heights now echo back these talismanic names, and the people shall re-echo them to both oceans.

"WELL, my boy do you know what 'syntax' means?" said a schoolmaster to a pupil. "Yes, sir," was the reply; "the duty on spirits."

"YOU want nothing, do you?" said Pat. "Bedad an' if its nothing you want, you'll find it in the jug where the whisky was."

"GRANDMA," said a sharp child, "do you want some candy?" "Yes dear, I should like some." "Then if you buy me some I will give you a part."

"THEN I'LL SEND HIM A KISS."—Little Mary was sitting with her mother on a pleasant evening, while the stars came brightly out, and, looking up, she said:

"Mamma, who made all those beautiful stars in the sky?"

The mother replied: "Our Heavenly Father, my child."

"Then, mamma, I'll send Him a kiss," Mary answered; and suiting the action to the words, she kissed her hand, and threw it upward toward the sky.

Was not the offering accepted by the loving Father, who has said to all who do not trust and obey him, "Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, and ye perish by the way, when His wrath is kindled but a little?"

The Star & Sentinel.

Wednesday, June 17, 1868.

Advertisers and others interested will bear in mind that the regular circulation of the "STAR AND SENTINEL" is much larger than that of any other paper published in the County, being read weekly by not less than 11,000 persons.

Advertisements, to secure immediate attention, must be handed in on or before Tuesday morning.

GRANT AND VICTORY!

The Star and Sentinel for the Campaign.

ENLARGEMENT.

For some time we have been hampered by the press of advertisements on our columns, and have been compelled from time to time to decline them for want of room. We have the gratification of announcing that we have nearly completed arrangements for the ENLARGEMENT of our paper, which will enable us to meet the demands of business men, and at the same time increase the amount of reading matter. We expect to make the enlargement in a few weeks, not later than the 1st of July. This step will involve a considerable additional expense but will enable us to furnish a more interesting and effective sheet during the important campaign on which we are now entering. With this brief announcement we solicit the active agency of our friends for an increased circulation.

THE Copperhead press quote with evident relish, a remark of the London Economist as to the extent and variety of taxation in this country, to this effect:

"A ninety-ninth part of this interference in England would have caused a rebellion."

Evidently, the Copperheads feel they deserve great credit for not having risen against the tax laws. One thing was sufficient to prevent it. Copperhead office-holders have made a good thing out of the collections!

Our taxation has been heavy and varied, but the expense of suppressing the Rebellion made it necessary. This the people understood; and because they understood it, they submitted to the tax, cheerfully. This fact, so difficult of comprehension to an Englishman, is perfectly plain to an American as an indication of the inherent strength of popular institutions. The people are willing to pay taxes imposed by themselves as with us.—They don't like to pay taxes imposed without their consent, as in Europe.

THE Cambria Freeman, Copperhead organ, in speaking of impeachment last week, said: "The acquittal of the President is perhaps due to Chief Justice CHASE more than to any other man."—It might have added that the failure to try JEFF. DAVIS is "due to Chief Justice CHASE more than to any other man;" and for a reason which the whole world can now understand. This was part of the "bargain and sale" between CHASE and JOHNSON. CHASE, however, fears to carry it out, before the next election; so, last week, DAVIS' trial was postponed by him till November! The trick will not conceal the purpose, nor shield the parties from the degradation their conduct involves.

THE Round Table, a conservative paper, gives the Democrats some sage advice respecting the mode of conducting their campaign. Their danger, in the view of that journal, is not small. "They have no powerful, available man, none at least, whose name has yet been seriously considered, to match against General GRANT for the Presidency. There is every appearance, in its tangible result, of a repetition of the MCCLELLAN campaign of 1864. To do better than they then did, the Democrats must work much harder; must develop resources and expedients untried before; must gain the aid of brains and sympathies not yet marshalled in their service."

THE Confederate bond-holders in England are still hopeful of getting back part of their money, invested for the benefit of the Rebellion.

That will depend upon the result of the next Presidential Election. If the Copperheads elect their candidates, and succeed in defeating the XIVth Constitutional Amendment as they threaten to do, there is little doubt that some compensation will be voted to Rebel bond-holders as well as Rebel slave-owners.—If this be not their secret purpose, we can't understand their ferocious hostility to the Amendment which is intended to prevent that result.

THE Pittsburg Republic, a Johnson paper, has the impudence to appeal to the working men of Allegheny county to vote that ticket upon the ground that JOHNSON is "not only willing but anxious to sign even a prohibitory tariff bill." JOHNSON is, and always has been, an anti-protectionist, is a Southern Democratic Free-trader, and has thrown his personal and official influence, all his life, against Protection. The Republic's statement is not only false, but, in the face of JOHNSON'S entire record, is undoubtedly dishonest.

SINCE JOHNSON'S acquittal, Rebel persecution of Union citizens in the South has assumed new features of ferocity. A well-known German at present in Washington City has recently received a letter referring to Rebel atrocities, and stating that "the Northern people cannot realize our condition, or they would rise up en masse and drive out or exterminate every rebel in the land."

THE TROUBLES OF THE DEMOCRACY.

"OCCASIONAL," writing from Washington to the Philadelphia Press, describes the troubles of the Democracy, growing out of their internal dissensions and the difficulty to harmonize on an available candidate to contest the Presidential struggle with GEN. GRANT, and remarks:

The rebel Democracy in Congress are becoming restive and suspicious of each other. They make no headway with all the aid they have received from Andrew Johnson's acquittal. They are embarrassed by the compact unity of the Republicans on Grant, and by the dissensions resulting from a host of candidates for the Democratic nomination.—They fear Chase, even while they stand ready to swallow him, negro suffrage and all. They dread Hancock, and shudder before his praises of Stanton as Secretary of War, and his officious eagerness to assist in the sacrifice of the sainted Mrs. Surratt. They would take Dix, if he had not said so much aginst rebellion—a sad introduction to such an administration as they hunger for, and a very possible prologue to a disappointment too terrible to contemplate. In private conversation, they do not hesitate to speak freely, though in public they are bitter enough. But you will note that they hide their own miseries by attacking the Republicans. Unhappily this game cannot be continued. They must turn to their own household and set it in order, if they would do anything for themselves.

Meanwhile the friends of Pendleton are working desperately. They see that there will be no cheating with him as a candidate. He carries no doubtful banner. He wears his creed on his sleeve, and speaks it like a man. His champions say: "We want no McClellan who is ashamed of our platform, and no platform that will be a shame to our candidate." If a soldier is needed in the Presidency, they say, "Give us Grant, who has not engineered for the office; and if negro sufrage is necessary, why should we be asked to do what the Republicans will do without us?"

There never was such a begging for office on the part of hungry politicians—such a frenzy to sell principle for place.

The effect of this Democratic auction of all honor and consistency, in exchange for patronage, need not be anticipated. I see it every day in my intercourse with independent men at the Capitol; and you may be sure, if it disgusts the genuine hard-shell Democrats, who believed in the rebellion, and still believe in it, it will bring thousands of votes to Grant from those who never did believe in it, though they are not willing to be classified as Radicals.

The complication would be complete, if the word complete can be applied to confusion worse confounded. Look out for a speedy dissolution of this motley organization.—Held together only by hope of office, and ready to barter everything to get office, the moment the leaders get into the open field with their candidates, they will become so much of a laughing-stock as to induce universal wonder that they were ever expected to make a formidable opposition to Grant and the Republicans.

GEN. GRANT'S SPEECHES.

The Democratic journals, says the New York Tribune, are greatly exercised about Gen. GRANT'S speeches, and predict disaster to the country in the election of a man who (they say) cannot make a glittering oration. One of these carping critics is Gen. S. B. BUCKNER, now the editor of The Louisville Courier, the Chief PENDLETON-Democratic organ of Kentucky. Editor BUCKNER sharply reviews Gen. GRANT'S style and ideas, and thinks he won't do. But Mr. BUCKNER possibly may remember one little speech or composition of Gen. GRANT. It was as follows:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY IN THE FIELD,
CAMP NEAR DONELSON, Feb. 16, 1862.

To Gen. S. B. Buckner, Confederate Army: Yours of this date, proposing an armistice and appointment of commissioners to settle terms of capitulation, is just received.—No other terms than an unconditional and immediate surrender can be accepted. I propose to move immediately on your works. I am, Sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

U. S. GRANT,
Brig.-Gen. U. S. A., Commanding.

Gen. BUCKNER called these terms ungenerous and uncivil: but he made haste to accept them. For once, at least, he clearly comprehended Gen. GRANT'S style.

Some time afterward, Gen. GRANT was visited in his camp before Vicksburg by Gen. PEMBERTON, who was anxious to know upon what terms that city could be relieved from a siege just then pending. Here are the speeches:

PEMBERTON.—Gen. Grant, I meet you in order to arrange terms for capitulation. What terms do you demand?

GRANT.—Unconditional surrender.

PEMBERTON.—Unconditional surrender!—Never, so long as I have a man left me. I will fight rather.

GRANT.—Very well.

But Gen. PEMBERTON reflected a little, and as soon as the full force of Gen. GRANT'S brief speech became clear to his mind, he, too, made haste to comply.

Again, on the road to Richmond, after the battle of Spottsylvania Court-House, Gen. GRANT indulged in a speech or dispatch in these tolerably clear words:

"We have now ended the sixth day of very heavy fighting, and the result to this time is much in our favor. * * * I propose to fight it out on this line if it takes all Summer."

We believe that Gen. LEE was in no doubt as to the meaning of this speech. If he was, those doubts were settled by the next which we shall quote of Gen. GRANT'S speeches. The scene this time is at Appomattox Court-House:

"I propose to receive the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia upon the following terms."

We need not quote the terms. It is enough to say that Gen. LEE very clearly understood them, and lost no time in complying.

DAN. SICKLES, Ben. Butler, John W. Forney and John A. Logan are now the leaders and managers of the Radical party.—Copperhead Exchange.

Yes, and all of them were "leaders and managers" of the old Democratic party. SICKLES was the idol of the New York Democracy. BUTLER presided over the Democratic National Convention in 1860, which nominated Breckenridge. FORNEY was the "Warwick" of the party in Pennsylvania for years; while LOGAN contributed more than any other man to roll up the enormous Democratic majorities in Southern Illinois. All four of them, however, abandoned the Democratic party because of its infidelity to principle and betrayal of the Republic. When Democracy merged into Copperheadism, SICKLES, BUTLER, FORNEY and LOGAN, with thousands of other honest Democrats, revolted and joined the Republican party in its determination to squelch treason and save the country. All honor to them!

THE Administration at Washington is engaged trying to make a panic. It has previously deceived Congress by false estimates which drove that body to heavy taxation. And it has used this surplus of revenue obtained, in paying off the bonded debt to the enormous amount of $266,185,121 in the last two years.

Congress is determined to lighten taxation, and revive business, and stop the absurd effort to compel the generation who bore the brunt of the Rebellion to pay the debt contracted thereby. Posterity are to derive untold benefits from our sacrifices. Let some of the burden of the debt fall to them for payment. If, in a few years, the resources of the country justify, it will be time enough to collect more revenue, and pay part of the debt.

MORE SPECIMEN DEMOCRACY.

We have during the last [illegible] furnished our readers with [illegible] selections from the La Crosse Democrat and other Copperhead organs, as specimens of the treasonable sympathies of large masses of the so-called "Democratic" party, who find in these papers congenial utterances. The success of BRICK POMEROY, in running up his circulation beyond that of any "Democratic" journal in the country, has brought a number of imitators into the field. We have before us a copy of a recent issue of the St. Joseph (Missouri) Daily Vindicator, flying the name of GEORGE H. PENDLETON as its favorite for President, which seems emulous of sharing the ribald and blasphemous utterances of the La Crosse Democrat. It boldly endorses the murderous operations of the "Ku-Klux Klan" organization, and gives the following advice to the Democracy:

Fight to the last, fight to the death, against the outrages, degradation, the horrors, which are all summed up in that master-piece of hellish iniquity and malignity: "Radical Reconstruction with Scallawag Constitution!"

Let it be distinctly understood that every villain who supports it, is your enemy, and you, his!

Cast him out of your employ!
Spurn him, though dying of hunger, from your door-step!
Hurl his vile carcass, when dead, from consecrated ground!

Fight on!
FIGHT ON!!

And show yourselves worthy to be kinsmen of the heroes who fought with Washington at Yorktown, and with "OLD STONEWALL," at Manassas!

Again, speaking of the National Republican Convention, and the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, recently in session at Chicago, the editor characterizes these bodies as—

Grand rendezvous of cut-throats, harlots, loyal parsons and high-moral vagabonds!

In a Chicago wigwam, the old Sangamon gorilla (Lincoln) was nominated for the office which enabled him to rend the Union asunder, destroy the noblest government earth ever saw or ever will see, trample Liberty under the hoofs of his nigger janizaries, and blast forever the proudest memories, the fondest hopes of thirty millions of freemen!

From Chicago came that squad of canting bible-whanging scoundrels who revealed to him "the will of the Lord" concerning the prosecution of the murderous, theiving nigger war!

From Chicago came his heaviest backing of pious groans and prayers and substitutes.

And yet with all her faults, we pity her!

Lustful, robbery, rape and bloodstained as she is, what has she done to bring down upon her wretched head the visitation of the past two weeks?

A North Methodist Conference and a Jackobin National Convention, all at once!!

Bishop Simpson and Dog Forney!

Carpet-baggers, Samboes and chicken-eaters!

And yet this kind of ribald blasphemy has been found to pay, finding for the journals which utter them the talismanic "See-same" which opens for them ready admission to "Democratic" confidence and approval. By the way, we have another "specimen brick" from POMEROY himself, in which the La Crosse Democrat sends greeting to the Methodists of the country, on the occasion of the assembling of their General Conference at Chicago, in this wise:

There is now in session in the city of Chicago, a nondescript, black and tan, rump Radical, politico-religious mob, known as the Quadrennial Conference of the Methodist Church. It is convened nominally in the interests of the Methodist denomination, but really in the interests of the mongrel party, and with an eye to the interests of Grant, who is a candidate of the Methodists. It will remain in session until after the Chicago Convention, and will add its nasal whine to the chorus of damnable discords that will hail the nomination of the azure backed butcher. It is engineered by the infamous Simpson, Methodist Bishop of Philadelphia, who, in collusion with Gen. Howard, the other reverend ruffian of the Freedmen's Bureau, took possesion of twelve hundred churches belonging to the Methodist Church South, and turned them over to the niggers and convict preachers of the North.

* * * * * * * *

Roost high, oh ye feathered beasts, for the chicken eaters are come up to the great city.

Guard well the back doors to your gin-mills, oh ye dispensers of benzine, for the throats that are enveloped in white chokers are often athirst.

Look well to your four-footed beasts, ye that keep livery stables, for horse flesh hath ever a powerful attraction for the Methodist deacon.

Look well to your wallets, oh ye who travel in the street cars, lest ye lose the lovely patches of ragged paper that have symbolized money ever since the time that these nice shepherds have furnished inspiration for the political machine.

Look well to your mustard cups and spoons of shoddy silver, oh ye maidens who doth dispense the juice of the hop, for the bible banger doth delight to labor with the nymphs, who are profanely called beerjerkers, and the pockets of the brethern are capacious.

Mount a two-barrel gun within range of your clothes line, oh, ye that have much raiment, for the colporteurs have a weakness for square tailed shirts and embroidered under clothes.

Place none but tried men on guard to-night, oh, ye who set up free lunches for your patrons, for the hymn squawkers do go for all things which are free.

Guard well your watch tower, oh, ye publicans of high and low degree, for in beating landlords a Methodist circuit-rider can double discount the "oldest inhabitant."

And, oh, ye unsuspecting Methodist brethren of Chicago, hearken to our warning, and go mighty slow on your itinerant brethern from the country, for they will reneag on you the first deal.

Brethren let us pray.

Our readers will excuse the re-productions of these infamous extracts. Taken as they are from so-called "Democratic" journals of large circulation, with numerous subscribers in Adams county, they must be accepted as types of the new "Democratic" gospel. Decent men will shun a party that finds its accepted exponents in ribald slanderers and coarse blasphemers.

ORGANIZED MURDER!

The Copperheads of the South are still at their bloody work of murder. Last week we received news of the murder of three Republican leaders, two in South Carolina. One, Mr. DILL, member of the legislature of South Carolina, a native of the State, and a gentleman of unimpeachable moral character, and another, Mr. W. J. MIXON of Barnwell, S. C., also a member elect, and School commissioner of his county. Both were killed at their homes by assassins. The third murder was in Louisiana, and the person killed was the Republican candidate for Sheriff in his parish. He was shot, while standing at his gate.

The Rebel press in the South connive at these murders; and the Copperhead papers in the South suppress all mention of them.

Upon the restoration of these States the re-organization of their Courts, and the creation of their own militia system, life may again become safe in the South. Yet "Democratic" policy is summed up in the purpose to make this impossible—for Republicans!

THE Raleigh Standard says that sufficient evidence can be obtained for the conviction of some of the K. K. K. in one of the counties in North Carolina, in which they electioneered for the Conservative ticket by placing coffins before the doors of loyal white men, whom they had oppressed during the rebellion for their loyalty, and whom they now attempt to keep from the ballot-box with threats of death.

POLITICAL.

Hon. E. B. Washburne, of Illinois, who has served eight terms in Congress, has just been nominated for re-election.

The Republican congressional convention of the seventh district, at Lafayette, has nominated Hon. G. S. Orth for re election.

THE Chase movement, so promising ten days ago, seems to be breaking down.—What next?

THE New York Empire Club, led by Isaiah Rynders, has declared for Chase. John Morrissey goes for Pendleton. The Hancock movement seems to be breaking down.

Hon. William M. Converse, of Connecticut, a member of the Democratic National Committee, has announced his purpose to vote for General Grant for President.

GENERAL Crawford, commanding at Louisville, repudiates the use of his name as a supporter of Judge Chase for the Presidency.—He says he is earnestly in favor of the election of General Grant.

THE New York World says that a decent self respect requires the Democrats to say nothing in their national platform on the subject of negro suffrage. What the Democratic party is to do without its rallying cry of "down with the negro" is not explained.

A MEETING of the friends of Judge Chase was held at the Continental Hotel, Philadelphia, on Wednesday, to take measures to press his nomination for the Presidency by the Democrats. Hon. Wm. S. Price, of Philadelphia, presided, and among the Vice Presidents were Senators Dixon and Doolittle.

GEN. N. B. FORREST, the hero of the Fort Pillow butchery, is one of the Democratic delegates from Tennessee to the New York Convention. His service to the party consisted in the murdering in cold blood of a regiment or two of unarmed colored soldiers of the United States after they had surrendered as prisoners of war.

The Alabama Democratic State Convention, which met last week and chose delegates to the New York Convention, passed a resolution tendering "the thanks of the Southern people to Jeff Davis for the unflinching courage and unsurpassed ability with which he acquitted himself of his official oath to defend the Constitution, and paying to him the respect of the Convention as a patriot and incorruptible man."

GENERAL GRANT is supported by every illustrious soldier in the Union—Sherman, Meade, Sheridan, Sickles, Geo. H. Thomas, Hooker, Pleasanton, McDowell, Canby, Emory, Schofield, Mower, Ord, Halleck, Kilpatrick, Logan, Rawlings, and a host of volunteer generals, many of whom have heretofore been Democrats. General Hancock is the only really eminent officer who seems willing to train with the anti-war Democracy.

Hon. Isaac N. Morris, an old and prominent Democrat of Quincy, Ill., who has repeatedly been honored by his party by being placed in high official position, having several times represented his district in Congress, made a speech in Quincy recently, in which he declared that the highest welfare of the nation demands the election of General Grant to the Presidency.

THE Democracy are in a quandary. They don't know whether to nominate a Democrat or an Abolitionist as their Presidential candidate; whether they will stand on a platform of gold or greenbacks—go for repudiation or for paying the National obligations in hard cash—whether their battle cry will be "Universal Suffrage" or "a White Man's Government, and down with the nigger." The party is in such a desperate strait that it is ready to agree to anything and nominate anybody that promises the faintest show of success.

THE Republicans of Philadelphia have nominated for Mayor, Gen. Hector O. Tyndale; President and Associate Judges of the District Court, J. I. Clark Hare and M. Russell Thayer; for City Solicitor, T. J. Worrell; Controller, S. P. Hancock; Receiver of Taxes, Richard Peltz; Prothonotary, Capt. Richard Donagan. On District Attorney there is a split, one party nominating the present incumbent, Wm. B. Mann, and the other Isaac Hazlehurst. Messrs. O'Neill, Myers and Kelly have been re-nominated for Congress. Benjamin L. Berry is the Republican candidate in the 1st (Randall's) district.

SOME months ago the Pittsburg Post, one of the most respectable of the Democratic papers of Pennsylvania, contained a leader under the caption of "The Duty of the Democratic Party in a Certain Event," from which we except the salient paragraphs without any further comment. They speak for themselves:

Suppose that, contrary to the wish of some of the leading Radical Black Republicans, who want the office themselves, General Grant should be nominated for the Presidency by the Republican party, what course ought the Democratic party to pursue? Ought we to nominate a man in opposition to General Grant? Ought we to charge him with being an enemy to his country, or in favor of unjust measures, merely because he may have received said nomination?

* * * *

We are inclined to believe, that more depends upon General Grant now than upon any other individual in the United States. We believe him to be far superior to the majority of the far-sighted politicians who have been ruling the nation without bringing peace or economy to our legislation. He is known to all people as A STRAIGHT-FORWARD MAN, and, so far as can be judged, a man well disposed to deal fairly with the people of all sections of the Union.

* * * *

What better thing can we do in case of General Grant's nomination by the Republican party than to VOTE FOR HIM FOR THE PRESIDENCY? Our aim should be to strengthen his hands; to render him as much as possible independent of party, and to ELECT HIM AS THE PRESIDENT OF THE PEOPLE! If unanimously, so much the better.

WE SOLEMNLY BELIEVE THAT IF THE PEOPLE GENERALLY OF THE UNITED STATES CAN COME TOGETHER WITH [illegible] UNANIMITY ON GENERAL GRANT, IN REGARD TO THE PRESIDENCY, IT WILL BE THE HAPPIEST THING FOR OUR COUNTRY THAT COULD OCCUR. The future good effects of this course are almost incalculable. We earnestly ask our Democratic friends everywhere to consider this subject carefully.

THE Chicago Tribune has a despatch from Napierville, Ill., giving an account of the poisoning of a whole church congregation at that place on Sunday, 7th inst. The church was celebrating a lovefeast. The meat had been prepared in a copper kettle, and allowed to remain in it all night, till the liquid had become oxydized. All who partook of it were poisoned, and all suffered the most excruciating pains. Medical assistance was at once summoned, but it was a long time before the entire number (about one hundred and thirty) could be attended to. About twenty of the number were regarded as in a dangerous condition, but none have yet died, and it is hoped that all will recover.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Senator Saulsbury appeared in the Senate on Friday and Saturday [illegible] drunk, and had to be removed by force. What [illegible]?

Hon. Reverdy Johnson was on Friday nominated by President Johnson as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to England, and the nomination was at once confirmed by the Senate.

Woolly, the contumacious witness, who refused to testify before the House managers and was committed for contempt, has been discharged, having finally agreed to appear before the committee and answer its questions.

On Monday, the House adopted a resolution offered by Mr. Shanks, of Indiana, instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to report immediately a separate bill for the revision of the taxes on distilled spirits and tobacco. This action will probably carry the general tax bill over to the next session.

The Senate has passed the joint resolution authorizing officers and soldiers of the regular or volunteer service, or those who have been honorably discharged from the service, to wear on public occasions the distinctive badge of the corps in which they served during the rebellion. The bill continuing the Freedmen's Bureau in existence has passed the Senate.

The Managers of the Impeachment will report the testimony taken before them concerning the means used to affect votes on the articles of impeachment during this week. They say they will prove conclusively that had the vote been taken sooner the President would certainly have been convicted; that his last vote was never "secured" until about ten hours before the vote was taken on the eleventh article, and that some of his counsel are seriously compromised by their associations and knowledge of these corruptions. Some of the testimony will not be very flattering to Pendleton, who, it appears, was especially anxious for Johnson's acquittal.

The bill to admit the States of North and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana and Florida to representation in Congress, has passed both houses, and now goes to the President for his approval. Should he veto the bill, and thus attempt to deprive the States mentioned of their proper representation in Congress, there is no doubt of a two-thirds Republican vote in the Senate and House to pass it over his objections. An impression prevails that he will allow it to become a law without his signature. In addition to the States above mentioned, Congress has also passed an act for the admission of the Senators and Representative from Arkansas.

Mr. Rollins, in his letter tendering his resignation as Commissioner of Internal Revnue, upon the appointment and confirmation of his successor, gives as his reason therefor the appointment of parties as Collectors and Assessors, for political reasons, whose unfitness had proved "a sad blow to the efficiency and reputation of the Revenue service," and to the refusal of the President to remove others "even for the grossest misconduct." Mr. Rollins speaks quite plainly, and in effect puts on record in an official form the fact that the President has prostituted the internal revenue service, destroyed its efficiency, and afforded facilities for the gigantic frauds perpetrated on the Government, in order to reward his political friends.

DISRAELI has at length resolved to appeal from the Liberal majority of the House of Commons to the people. Parliament will be dissolved in October; the elections will take place in November, and the new Parliament will meet on the 19th of December. The electoral contest is likely to be one of the most excited and most memorable in the history of England, for both parties will look upon it as a pitched battle between the power of the Tories and the reformatory spirit of the majority of the people.

THE example of Booth in this country seems to have given an inpetus throughout the world to the practice of political assassination. Our foreign despatches announce that Prince Michael, the ruler of Servia, was shot dead in the public park at Belgrade on Wednesday. The assassins consisted of three men, a father and his two sons, all armed with revolvers. At the first fire the Prince was killed. His cousin, who accompanied him, was also killed, and a daughter of the latter wounded. Two of the assassins were subsequently arrested. The assassination, which had created profound excitement, was attributed to the intrigues of the Turkish Government, the Prince being a partisan of Russia on the Eastern question.

CATTLE DISEASE IN ILLINOIS.—The Indianapolis Journal, speaking of affairs in Tippecanoe county, that State, says:

A terrible and fatal epidemic has broken out among the cows in the northeastern part of this county, and they are dying off very rapidly. About one third of the cows in the neighborhood of Wild Cat, and north of the city have died within ten days past, and several have died in the city proper. The disease is rapid in its effect—the animal being apparently well in the morning, and before night are dead, in many instances dropping down by the roadside, within an hour or two after milking. The first symptom noticeable is a stiffening of the limbs and an inability to walk, after which death speedily ensues. After death the body swells very rapidly and become very offensive, a green sickening smell issuing from the mouth and nostrils. The same disease is also thinning out the stock in several parts of Illinois. Numerous examinations have been made, but they throw no light upon the cause of the disease, and up to this time no remedy has been discovered.

WEAVER'S PATENT ADJUSTABLE SELF-FEEDING
ROCK DRILL,
ONE OF THE GREATEST IMPROVEMENTS OF THE AGE,
Being the first successful attempt to apply machinery to Rock Drilling for blasting purposes, and which will answer equally well for splitting Rock [illegible] any purpose.
PATENTED JULY 16, 1867.

THIS Drill has everything that is desired in a Rock Drill. It has any amount of adjustability, so that it will stand on any uneven surface, where it is possible for a man to drill.

It drills perpendicularly, or at any angle up to 55 degrees, and any depth or dimensions required for Blasting.

It operates easily, and with one of these Machines a man can do five times the amount of work done in the old way, in the same time. In ordinary Rock it will drill one inch per minute.

With this Drill, Farmers, who have rough land, can clear the rock off with little expense, as any person who can turn a wind-mill can operate the drill.

It can be used in Wells, Cellars, Coal Mines, or any place that Rock is met with.

The undersigned having purchased from the Patentee, WILLIAM WEAVER, all his interest in said Letters Patent in and to the State of Pennsylvania, are prepared to sell County and Township Rights in said State, on reasonable terms. We have also been constituted, by Letters of Attorney, Agents for the Patentee, for the sale of State Rights throughout the United States. Persons desiring to secure County or Township Rights in Pennsylvania, or to secure the Right for other States, will address,

REAPERS AND MOWERS.
DODGES' PATENT
OHIO AND BUCKEYE,
E. BALL & COMPANY'S WORLD'S REAPER & MOWER.

HAVING had considerable experience in the sale of Reaping and Mowing Machines in the last few years, I have made it a point to offer no machine to the farmer that will not when thoroughly tested give general satisfaction, and hence have declined the agency for all but what I regard the very best in the market. I now offer to the farmer the coming Season, two of what I consider the best machines in use.—Last season I sold thirty-five of the OHIO & BUCKEYE Patent which have given entire satisfaction. No machine has been returned, neither has there been any difficulty with any one to whom they were sold—all paying for their machines promptly. Certificates from those who have purchased, could be procured but I deem it unnecessary—but for information would refer those wanting machines to any of the following gentlemen who purchased and have been using these machines:

Jacob Raffensperger,
Jacob Fidler,
William Wert, Jr.,
Benjamin Shelly,
Newton Horner,
Silas Horner,
John Herbst,
Joseph Geilbaugh,
Joseph Culbertson,
George Bushey,
Daniel March,
Edward Wagoner,
Samuel Wagoner,
John Brinkerhoff,
William Bigham,
Rush Bigham,
Dr. Goldsborough,
Henry Spangler,
James Marshall,
Frederick Peffer,
Henry Weikert,
Henry Butt,

This machine has been awarded medals and first Premiums by the Pennsylvania, Iowa and New York State Fairs, and by hundreds of County Fairs in all parts of the country, including the Adams County Fairs, having received the first Premium at Bendersville in the fall of 1866, and at Gettysburg in 1867, as the best on exhibition.

This machine has met with the most complete success. In every section where it has been introduced, it has taken precedence over machines which have heretofore ranked as first class. In compactness, lightness of draft, excellence and elegance of workmanship and finish, combined with great strength and adaptation to all kinds of work, it will surpass any machine heretofore offered to the farmer. The Self-Rake on this machine has been considerably improved in the last Season, and is warranted to give general satisfaction or no sale.

THE WORLD'S MOWER AND REAPER,

This is an entire new machine, but judging from its construction and the testimonials it has received, it will be the leading machine. The gearing is cut out of solid iron, making every wheel and cog exact, fitting up close, and running as true as a clock, which makes the machine much lighter of draft, and no cutting of cogs or wear. The gearing is all closed in a tight case the same as a watch, entirely excluding water, dirt, or grass, and indeed preventing everything that is calculated to prove injurious to the machinery. To oil, you simply open the lid when all the oiling places are exposed and conveniently oiled. The bars are all encased the same as the gearing and cut in the same way, and when once tightened down—there is no danger of working loose, as is the case with other machines. The Company do not hesitate in saying that this machine, with proper care, will last a man a life time, which is a matter every farmer should take into consideration, before buying at the present high prices of machines.

TESTIMONY OF REV. JACOB B. TROSTLE.
LINGANORE, FRED'K., CO., MD., April 22, 1868.
MR. WM. WIBLE:—Last year I purchased one of E. Ball's WORLD'S REAPERS, and used it last harvest in in cutting my own Grain and Grass and some of my neighbors, and have no hesitation in saying that it gave me more satisfaction as a combined machine than any I have ever used, although I have tried some seven or eight other machines. I regard it the BEST machine in market, and do not hesitate to recommend it as such to any person wanting a first-class machine.
Yours, &c., J. D. TROSTLE.

I can also furnish BALL'S OHIO to those wishing that machine.

I can furnish these machines to suit farmers, and will sell as single Mowers or Combined Machines as Mowers—Self-Rake—Hand-Rake—Dropper—or Dropper and Hand Rake combined. I am also agent for HOPE'S DROPPER, which can be attached to any make of machine. Those having old machines on hand, and wishing a Dropper can be accommodated by sending in their orders early and naming the kind of machine to which they wish them to be attached.—Price $30.

Sample machines can be seen at the residence of the subscriber, two miles from Gettysburg, on Harrisburg road, or at the Warehouse of COBEAN & BIGHAM, Gettysburg, Pa.

I also keep on hand
WIRE-TOOTH HAY RAKES, STEEL PLOUGHS, FEED CUTTERS AND FARMING IMPLEMENTS GENERALLY.

Farmers would do well to examine my machinery before buying elsewhere. I keep nothing but the best. Extras constantly on hand, and I have made arrangements to have repairing done in the best possible manner at short notice and moderate charges.

such as THRESHING MACHINES, SPRING-TOOTH RAKES, &c., and will keep the BUCKEYE REAPER & MOWER on hand for sale.
All descriptions of REPAIRING done promptly and as cheaply as possible.
He has in connection with his Machine Shop a STEAM SAW MILL, [illegible] will do all kinds of work in that line.
He asks the public to call and give him a trial, and he guarantees full satisfaction.

J. H. SHIREMAN'S
REAPERS & MOWERS.
HAVING been agent for this machine last season, I am [illegible] it as the same this season. It is well known, having taken the premium at the Bendersville Fair, also at the Gettysburg Mowing Match over seven others, [illegible] and likewise at the Dillsburg Mowing Match. Having concluded not to [illegible] any machine that will not give entire satisfaction [illegible]
THE GREAT MACHINE OF THE SEASON.
[illegible]
Extras always on hand, and repairing done here at any place. This is a great consideration—the machine has [illegible] cost.
Another great [illegible] which is attached to this celebrated Reaper and Mower. It has been thoroughly tried, and given entire satisfaction—requiring no [illegible] can also be attached to [illegible] sold; but cannot be attached to any other machine except Shireman's.
I will here refer you to a few farmers, in different localities, who have bought and used these machines:
[illegible]
Joseph Wierman,
Ulrich Jacobs,
Jacob [illegible]
Jacob Lanam,
[illegible]
Mr. Lanz,
[illegible]
This machine has a self-rake, side delivery, and is warranted to do its work as [illegible]
Also on hand, SHIREMAN'S SELF-DISCHARGING HORSE RAKE, which will be sold at the lowest possible price. Warranted to give satisfaction. Also the COLUMBIA RAKE always on hand.
Machines can be seen at my house, three miles south of Gettysburg, or at [illegible] Hotel.

GEISER'S PATENT SELF-REGULATING
GRAIN SEPARATOR,
CLEANER AND BAGGER,
With the latest improved Triple-geared Horse Power, either Gear or Belt.

This machine has successfully competed with all the best of the different patented Grain Separators, and now has the reputation of being the best Separator ever produced; in fact, the only Separator and Cleaner ever before the public to give general satisfaction.

The machine is conveniently arranged for hauling and threshing, being permanently fixed on two wheels. One man can easily move or shift it about, so that it is not half the trouble on a barn floor as a common thresher and shaker. It is also easily put in operation. It is simple, easily managed, reliable, durable, compact and cleanly to work by while in operation, not making near the dust as the common machine or other Separators.

Farmers can rest assured that this machine is no humbug, and judging from the high recommendation of farmers that are using them we must come to the conclusion that it is the very machine that farmers want.

The following are a few of the persons who have used this machine, well known, and to whom the public are referred for further information:

Wm J. Peters, Flora Dale, Adams co., Penna.
Wm. Kohler, near New Oxford " "
John D. Pfoutz, " Gettysburg " "
Henry Harbold, York Springs, " "
Daniel Peters, Bendersville, " "

Orders will be received by either of these gentlemen, as also by Rebert and Hoover, East Berlin, Pa. For further information address

Gettysburg, Wednesday, June 17, 1868.

FESTIVAL.—Don't forget the Strawberry and Ice Cream festival in Agricultural Hall to-morrow (Thursday) evening, in aid of the Memorial Church enterprise.

☞ The attention of the members of G. A. R., is called to the fact that Monday evening next, at 8 P. M., is the time for nominating officers, to serve for the next semi-annual term.

☞ MICHAEL FISCEL, of Mountjoy township, recently hauled from the Wolf Hill to a brick yard near this place 42½ cords of wood, oak and pine, in 11 loads, being an average of nearly 4 cords to a load. The hauling was done with a six mule team.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.—We understand the Ladies connected with the Hunterstown Sunday School intend to hold an Ice Cream and Strawberry Festival, in Hunterstown, in the public School House, for the benefit of the Sunday School, on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week, opening at 6½ o'clock. Besides Ice Cream and Strawberries all kinds, Cakes will be furnished.

SOLD.—WM. H. WIREMAN has sold his Farm in Franklin township, 117 acres and improvements, together with 75 acres of Mountain land, to LEVI MINTER, Jr., for $7,000 cash.

ANDREW KEEFFER has sold his property in Oxford township, consisting of 1¾ acres land, with improvements, to Mr. SCHWARTZ, for $800.

Mr. JACOB STRAUSBAUGH has sold his farm, containing 35 acres, situate in Mountpleasant township, to Mr. ANDREW KEEFFER, for $2,500.

RAILROAD.—The Hanover Branch Railroad and Littlestown Railroad Companies are both urging aid to the contemplated new Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Railroad. A meeting was held at Taneytown, Md., on the 6th inst., which was addressed by Capt. EICHELBERGER and others. Committees were appointed to canvas subscriptions.—The route proposed for the road will strike the Maryland State line beyond Littlestown, pass through Taneytown and Woodsborough, and follow the Monocacy Valley down to Frederick.

☞ Hon. EDWARD McPHERSON, has been honored with the appointment of American editor, for the present year, of the Almanack de Gotha—a noted European publication of high literary and scientific reputation. Not a mean compliment. The Junior feels somewhat proud of the Firm, embracing as it does the "Nestor" of the Pennsylvania Press, an L L. D., and American editor of standard European journals. The only trouble is that the Junior may be lost sight of under these growing and overshadowing honors.

FINED.—On Saturday evening officer WEIKERT arrested several persons for fast driving on Baltimore street, in violation of the Borough Ordinance. The parties were from the country and may have been ignorant of the ordinance. They, however, payed the required fine and went on their way. Glad to notice evidence on the part of the authorities to enforce this ordinance. A few examples will break up this thing of converting our public streets into race courses, to exhibit the speed of fast horses.

ELECTION.—The Pennsylvania Synod, in session at Philadelphia, which holds the nomination of the incumbent of the Franklin Professorship in Pennsylvania College, has nominated Rev. REUBEN HILL to the position made vacant by the resignation of Prof. MUHLENBURG. Mr. HILL was formerly Pastor of St. James Church in this place. The nomination will be submitted to the Board of Trustees of the College at its next meeting for confirmation. Last year the nomination of the Synod, Rev. Mr. RIS, was rejected and instruction in the department of Franklin Professor has been given under temporary provision of the Board.

CONOWAGO PHOSPHATE.—We invite the attention of farmers and others to the advertisement of Messrs. BENSON & MAUS, of Littlestown, who have commenced the manufacture of a valuable fertilizer, called "Conowago Phosphate." Both these gentlemen are favorably known as reliable business men—Dr. BENSON being an experienced practical chemist, and familiar with the relations between Science and Agriculture. A sample of the new fertilizer has been left in our office, which can be examined by parties interested. It is the intention of Messrs. BENSON & MAUS to enlarge their works shortly, to enable them to meet the demand for their Phosphate. We hope the enterprise may prove a perfect success, and not only reward the enterprising firm, but benefit the agricultural interests of the county.

SCHOOL MATTERS.—The new School Board met last week and organized by electing HIRAM WARREN President, J. F. McCREARY Secretary, and E. G. FAHNESTOCK Treasurer. Nine mills were ordered to be assessed for the current year, eight for School and one for Building purposes—being the same as last year. WM. GUINN was appointed Collector. A. J. COVER, Esq., has been appointed a member of the Board to fill the vacancy occasioned by the removal of JAMES A. SCOTT.

An abatement of 5 per cent. will be allowed on all School taxes which may be paid on or before the 1st day of August next.

The Board will meet on Friday evening, July 10, to elect Teachers for the ensuing year, examination of applicants to be held at 10 o'clock A. M., of the same day.

The Schools will re-open on the 1st of September.

HUBBARD'S COMBINED SELF-RAKING REAPER AND MOWER.—For sale by Henry Thomas & Son. This machine has two driving wheels, hanged joint and folding bar. The self-raker can be controlled by the driver, and a full sheaf made in all kinds of grain. If desired, the self raker can be adjusted to deliver a sheaf at every revolution of the rakes, without any aid from the driver. We deem it unnecessary to give any further description, but refer all wishing to purchase to those farmers who bought last season. tf

☞ Housekeepers and others wanting good Cooking Stoves, the best in the market, warranted to bake and give satisfaction, or any thing in lind of Tin Ware, Japan Ware, Hollow Ware, Chamber Sets, Bread and Spice Boxes, Ice Cream Freezers, Water Coolers, Coffee Mills, Bird Cages, Fruit Jars and Cans, Waiters, &c. &c., will find just what they want at the Ware-room of Col. C. H. BUEHLER, corner of Railroad and Carlisle street, opposite the Passenger Depot, and at prices which defy competition. tf

☞ It is conceded by all who have tested them, that Dodge's Patent Ohio and Buckeye, and E. Ball & Co's World Reaper and Mower, are beyond all question the best in the market, combining in greater perfection the great essentials of simplicity, durability, compactness, and lightness of draft. WM. WIBLE, Straban township, is the Agent for these admirable Reapers and Mowers, and Farmers would do well to examine them. See advertisement. 2t

☞ Summer having came at last, everybody is laying aside their winter rig and substituting more comfortable clothing. Now is the time to get Ready-made Clothing, and FRANCIS CUNNINGHAM'S, opposite the "Star and Sentinel" office, just he place to get them. He has the largest stock ever opened in Gettysburg, and sells at prices that can't be beat. Call and examine for yourselves. 2t

THE LOCUSTS.—Last week we referred to some peculiarities of the Locusts, now abounding in our woods, and whose music is ringing in our ears as we write. We notice that Dr. GIDEON P. SMITH, of Baltimore, an eminent naturalist, some years ago prepared an interesting account of these insects based on close observation during their last visit, seventeen years ago. Among other things he says "they commence depositing their eggs about the 15th of June. You may see a locust attached to a limb or twig, and it will not fly away as you approach. Look closely, and you will see it excavating a hole in the limb with its curious ovipositor. Watch it closely, and as soon as it has inserted the ovipositor completely into the limb, take hold of the insect, and gently but quickly draw it forward, and apply the point of the ovipositor to the palm of the hand, when you will see two eggs ejected into your hand in quick succession. They deposit two eggs at each insertion of the ovipositor, and generally five to ten pairs in each place on the limb. She then goes to other places on the same limb, or to some other limb, and repeats the operation, till she has laid about 400 eggs. The eggs are white, or pearl color, about the 12th of an inch long, and about one sixth as thick as they are long. It is this operation that destroys the small limbs, the excavations cutting off the sap vessels. The time of depositing the eggs continues till about the 20th of June, when they cease. All kinds of tress and shrubs are selected by them for their deposits except pines or other turpentine trees. They do not seem to select the hardest nor the most soft wood, but that which is about the size of their bodies or less, seems to be chosen; the operation requiring them to grasp the sides of the limb with their claws, which they could not do so well if the limbs were larger. By grasping firmly with their claws, they are able to make great pressure on the point of the ovipositor, and thus effect their object. From the 1st to the 20th of June, all shrubbing of value should be protected, either by carefully covering it with cheap gauze, or in the case of pot plants, by keeping them in the house. About the 25th of June, the eggs will be ready to hatch. Then take a limb containing them, cut carefully till you expose the eggs, and then take them out, place them in the palm of the hand, and they will hatch in a few minutes. The little insect frees himself from the egg precisely in the same way that the large one did in the spring, by rupturing the shell on his back. As soon as he is fairly out of the shell he starts off briskly in search of food. Let him get to ground and you will see him work his way into it, follow him and you will see him attach himself to the tender roots of grass and other vegetables, and commence taking up the liquid exudation from the surface with his little rostrum or snout. These observations can only be made with a good magnifying glass. By the aid of the glass you can see the young insect has every feather and member precisely the same as the large one had when he came from the ground in the spring. You can sometimes see great numbers falling from high trees.—They are like little motes in the air, and require sharp sight to see them. They are so small, and their apparent specific gravity so inferior, that they are not injured by the fall. The advent of the locusts is a great festival for the hogs. And as soon as the insects appear above the ground, chickens, turkeys, and all poultry, will also have the feast. So fond are the fowls, birds, pigs, &c., of these insects that they will scarcely touch other food during the locust season. This has a remarkable effect on all hen eggs laid after the locusts appear—their yolks are nearly white. The chickens become very fat, and of fine flavor. Even the little wren will be seen flying off with a locust in its mouth, and all the insectiverous birds then have a great festival."

McPHERSON'S POLITICAL MANUAL FOR 1868.—We are gratified to learn that Hon. Edward McPherson, Clerk of the House of Representatives, has in press a Political Manual for 1868, in continuation of his valuable manuals for 1866 and 1867.—These publications have become standard in this country, and have had a favorable reception in Europe. They are, practically, an analytical compilation of the political facts of the period they embrace, and they include everything important to a clear and accurate understanding of the events to which they relate. They are prepared with great care, and are marked by exact impartiality, and, viewed as a contribution to our political literature, they are of the highest value.

A similar work done for our past political history would be an infinite aid to every student, statesman, scholar, and politician; but we know of no one who proposes to himself so herculean an undertaking.

The political events which have transpired from April, 1868, to July, 1868, have been of the most important character, including, as they do, the complete development of the Congressional policy of reconstruction, the adoption by the people and acceptance by Congress of constitutions in most of the Rebel States, the attempted impeachment of President Johnson, and the preliminary movements in and out of Congress bearing upon the pending Presidential election. The volume will contain this entire record, as well as much more, for we observe in the table of contents such references as the following:

Orders, Letters, Papers, and Votes in the Senate respecting Secretary Stanton's suspension, attempted removal, and final retirement, and the confirmation of his successor.

Articles of Impeachment, with the Votes in the House, the Reply of the President and the Judgment of Senate.

Correspondence between General Grant and President Johnson growing out of his with drawal from the War office.

Grant's Politico-Military Orders in the Field, and his Political Letters and Record from 1863 to 1868.

The various State Platforms of 1868, with the National Platforms of the Republican and Democratic Parties, and the Letters of Acceptance of the Candidates.

Votes in Congress upon all Political Bills and Resolution.

Abstracts of the New Constitutions of Maryland and New York, and of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia.

Tabular Statements on Imports and Exports, Debt and Taxation, Revenue and Expenditures, Estimates and Appropriations, Banks, Registration and Votes in the South, and Election Returns from 1860 to the present time.

General Political Miscellany, &c.

It is not dificult to see that a book with so rich contents, carefully prepared, accurately stated, and copiously indexed, will meet a great public want, and naturally have a large demand.

LIVERY.—We invite the attention of the public and visitors to the Battle-field, to the Livery advertisement of our friend NICHOLAS WEAVER. Mr. W. is prepared at all times to furnish the best of teams with careful drivers. Clever, courteous, energetic, always ready to do "the fair thing," persons in need of Livery accommodations will find in his establishment just what they want. 1t

A FULL ASSORTMENT.—The attention of Farmers, Builders, Contractors, and others is invited to the large assortment of LUMBER of all kinds suitable for building purposes, to be found at Col. C. H. BUEHLER'S Lumber Yard, at corner of Carlisle street and Railroad depot, including Boards, Planks, Flooring, Siding, Laths, Pickets, Shingles, &c.—Also Posts, hewed and sawed, with prime Fencing Boards, white Pine and Hemlock. His stock is not only large, but his arrangements are such that he can sell at the very lowest cash rates. Also, constantly on hand Black-smith, Lime-Burners' and Stove COAL. tf

THE DEMI-JOHN AND JUG QUESTION.

GETTYSBURG SPRING, June 15, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—By a recent decision of the Gettysburg Spring Company, no more Demijohns or Jugs will be filled with the Gettysburg Water for transportation to any outside market. Though Demijohns and Jugs, not containing more than 3 gallons, will be filled to supply the people of Gettysburg and immediate vicinity, as usual.

But any abuse of this privilege, by sending away the water thus supplied, will forfeit the party's right so concerned, and subject them to legal responsibility in addition. This action on the part of the Company has become necessary to the protection of the trade and the protection of its own trade marks, so essential to commercial success, as well as for the invalid public. Such has become the demand for this water in all parts of the country, that any trick, however unfair, is resorted to in order to procure it at a reduction of current rates by persons in no way entitled to special favors; and the generous and humane in the vicinity of the Spring are make the unconscious instruments of this species of smuggling.

To accommodate all classes of consumers of this water, the Company has decided to place in the market one as well as two dozen cases of quart bottles, at a corresponding reduction of rates.

Yours Repectfully,
G. D. SMITH, Sup't.,
G. K. Spring Co.

LIGHTNING RODS.—The season having arrived in which disasters by lightning occur, and as such events are not unfrequent, the necessity of good lightning conductors is now generally acknowledged. Yet it is evident, in many instances, the provision usually made for the escape of lightning is so inefficient as to fail to prevent disaster.—MUNSON'S Copper Rod, however, is a perfect protection and is pronounced by scientific men to be the very best in use, being made entirely of Copper. Copper being eight times better conducting metal than Iron, and having four inches surface, it follows that it is equal to 20 Iron rods of the ordinary size.

The price is so trival, (being put up at 30 cents per foot,) compared with the advantages of a certain protection against the terrific effects of lightning, that it is certainly to the interest of all persons to have them. Why then delay so important a matter, when a few dollars invested in MUNSON'S Copper Rod will place you and your property and family out of danger as long as the building stands; or will you delay until the crash of broken thunderbolts and the vivid burning of fierce lightning awakes you to the necessity of this certain protection?

Samples of MUNSON'S Copper Rod can be seen at COOK'S Stove, Tin-ware and House-furnishing establishment in York st.
June 17,—1t

IN THE CITY.—DAVID KITZMILLER has gone to the city to lay in a stock of Boots and Shoes of all kinds for men, women and children's wear, and will return this week with a large and well selected assortment, which he proposes to sell at reduced prices, at his new new Boot and Shoe establishment on York st., opposite the Bank. Give him a call. 1t

BOOK NOTICES.

MOOR'S LIFE OF HON. SCHUYLER COFFAX.—T. B. Peterson & Brothers, No. 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, have in press and will publish in a few days, "The Life of Hon. Schuyler Colfax," written by Rev. A. Y. Moore, of South Bend, Indiana, who was for twelve years, as pastor and friend, in the entire confidence of Mr. Colfax, and had access to the files of the paper published by Mr. Colfax for twenty years, and to the Congressional Globe; knows all his past history and all who have known him from boyhood. He began this biography two or three years ago, so that it is not one of the hurried and ephemeral publications so common in election years. Mr. Moore is a gentleman of fine talent and culture, and there is no doubt but that his biography of Mr. Colfax will be worthy of its distinguished subject.

The following letter from Mr. Colfax to Rev. A. Y. Moore will explain itself:—

WASHINGTON, D C., May 30, 1868.

"My Dear Mr. Moore:—

"As your prediction of a year ago has been realized, I have no further objection to your publishing my sketch, more or less full, of my life, you may have prepared. As you were for a dozen years a fellow-townsman of mine, and a valued friend, I suppose you know as much about my history as the public would care about knowing; and although my engrossing duties here leave me no time to revise the manuscript, I have no fear that your will not be a faithful one.

"Yours very truly,
SCHUYLER COLFAX.

"Rev. A. Y. Moore, South Bend, Indiana."

It will be published in a lare duodecimo volumn of five hundred pages, printed from large type, and on the finest and best of white paper, with a portrait, on steel, of Mr. Colfax executed by one of the first artists in the country, from photographs taken of Mr. Colfax within the last week; the whole bound in cloth in the most substantial manner. Price, $1.50 a copy. Canvassers wanted everywhere. Large discounts given.—Copies will be sent to any one, at once, postpaid, on receipt of price, by the Publishers.

DEMING'S LIFE OF GRANT.—We have received from the Publisher, PARMELEE & Co., 738 Sansom street, Philadelphia, a copy of the life of Gen. GRANT, by Hon. HENRY C. DEMING. Col. DEMING's intimacy with Gen. GRANT and his position as a member of the Military Committee in Congress, give him special facilities for getting up a reliable and interesting work, which he has done. The publishers have brought it out in creditable style, and it cannot fail to command a ready sale.

ANOTHER.—The American Publishing Company, Hartford, Connecticut, are about bringing out a life of Gen GRANT, by ALBERT D. RICHARDSON, the author of "Field, Dungeon and Escape," and "Beyond the Mississippi." Mr. R. was one of the War correspondents of the N. Y. Tribune, is a racy writer, and will doubtless produce a capital work. The book will contain 25 full Engravings and other specialties. See advertisement

"AT HOME AND ABROAD."—Under this head we have a new Candidate for popular favor, in the form of a weekly Illustrated Journal for Family Reading, the first No. of which is on our table. It is a 16 quarto page publication, and makes a fair start both in matter of letter press and line of Illustrations—there being six of the latter, all full page and well gotton up. A number of prominent English and American authors are promised as regular contributors. We cordially welcome it to our list of exchanges. FRANCIS HART & Co., 63 Courtland street, N. Y., publishers, $3 per annum. Liberal premiums are offered to persons getting up clubs.

DELICACIES.—One of the special delicacies of modern times may be accounted Speer's Port Grape Wine, which combines with rare purity and nicety of flavor the good qualities of port and claret; it is neither insipid nor bitter, but hits the happy medium most to be desired in a constant beverage or in a drink for the sick. For invalids it is invaluable by virtue of its tonic qualities, and particularly its absolute freedom from all adulterations. Actual trial will show that Speer's port grape wine has excellence of its own unrivalled by any other wine in the market.—New Yorker.

Our druggists have direct from the vineyard. 1t

☞ No loss can be more fatal to beauty, especially in the female sex, than the loss of the hair; glossy, luxuriant hair is one of the most powerful of all personal charms. When baldness or even a deficiency of hair exists, we naturally look for a dry and wrinkled skin, a faded complexion; when not actually seen, we see them in imagination. Why, then, not cultivate your hair? Encourage it and strengthen it; or if your hair is gray or white, the natural color can be restored by a few applications of MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER OR DRESSING, (in one bottle.) Price One Dollar. Every Druggist sells it. June 3—1m

☞ Bogus certificates, manufactured to order, are often published in praise of some worthless hair preparation. "Barrett's Vegetoble Hair Restorative" does not need to resort to such means, for its merits are too well known and appreciated.—N. Y. Sunday Dispatch. 1t

AGENTS WANTED.
ALL AGENTS who propose to sell, and all parties who propose to buy a life of Gen. Grant, should understand, that the PERSONAL HISTORY OF
GENERAL GRANT,
BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON, Author of
"FIELD, DUNGEON & ESCAPE," & "BEYOND THE MISSISSIPPI,"
was written with the sanction of the illustrious General, and is the only fully authentic and authorized Biography of him, and will contain a mass of important and interesting matter no other book has or can obtain, fac similies of the Unconditional Surrender and other letters and documents from President Lincoln, Generals Grant, Buckner, Lee and others, from originals entrusted to the author, and matters of the highest importance, relating to the civil government since the war, never made public and an elegant Steel Engraving and condensed life of SCHUYLER COLFAX.
25 FULL PAGE ENGRAVINGS.
The Author is widely known as one of the most truthful as well as brilliant writers. He was with General Grant during most of his Western Campaigns, as a Journalist writing from "Headquarters in the Field," was one of his earliest supporters. He writes from personal observations and from material gathered from channels opened to him by and his friends. Its contents will prove its superiority over all others. Don't sell or buy an interior work.—Look at this first.
GENERAL GRANT,
Complete to 1st of June, and will contain engravings of the Chicago Convention. Circulars sent, and highest commissions paid. Address

THE GREAT
CONOWAGO PHOSPHATE,
PREPARED BY
C. W. BENSON, M. D.,
LITTLESTOWN, PA.
THE Conowago Phosphate is destined to stand at the head of American Fertilizers. It has already proved its SUPERIOR QUALITIES, and ample certificates of its high merits will soon be furnished to the public. The proprietors will spare no means or pains to make it a reliable and uniform article. It is superior to Peruvian Guano, because it is MORE LASTING IN ITS EFFECT and EQUAL TO IT ON THE FIRST CROP. It does not over-stimulate the soil, as most of the fertilizers in the market do, and leave the land after gathering the first crop in a worse condition than before using it, but it remains an active fertilizer in the soil, and continues year after year to show itself on every crop that is put in the land.
The Conowago Phosphate contains a large percentage of Ammonia and Phosphoric acid, which are essential elements to vegetable food. They either enter directly into the plant or prepare the alkalies in the soil to do so. The base of the Conowago Phosphate is PURE RAW BONE, completely and thoroughly dissolved without the use of any volatile agent.
One of the great advantages of the Conowago Phosphate is that it will dissolve the sand in the soil and set the silica free to be absorbed by the growing plant, which is a very important ingredient in giving firmness and strength to the stalk and grain. It will prevent the falling and lodging of crops that are forced up by a wet and warm season, and will greatly facilitate the ripening of the grain and secure it against the rust.
Agencies are being established throughout the country wherever fertilizers are sold. We are not afraid to place it beside the best in the country.
Let all the farmers and planters make up their minds that they will try the Great Conowago Phosphate this fall.
Price fifty Dollars per ton.
BENSON & MAUS, Proprietors.
☞ The Conowago Phosphate being made very fine, and thoroughly distintegrated, makes it convenient to use in the drills, and mixes more freely with the soil.—All farmers know the advantage of fine fert lizers.

600 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC
RAILROAD
Are now finished and in operation. Sixty miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this GREAT NATIONAL WORK,
at the earliest possible day, will be done.
The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:
I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.
II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is an absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.
III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.
IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. THE GOVERNMENT PERMITS the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy Trail, and completely supplied with stations, turnouts, car-shops, locomotives, cars, &c.
V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which over Eight Million Dollars have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.
VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through traffic that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS
upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount,
ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.
The Company have abundant means in their treasury, and make no appeal to the public to purchase their Bonds, as the daily subscriptions are entirely satisfactory; but they submit that, for entire security and liberal returns, there is certainly no better investment in the market.
The Union Pacific Bonds are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They have thirty years to run, and bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July at the Company's Office in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. At the present rate of gold, these bonds pay an annual income on their cost of
NEARLY NINE PER CENT.,
AND IT IS BELIEVED THAT THEY WILL SOON BE AT A PREMIUM.
The Company reserve the right to advance the price to a rate above par at any time, and will not fill any orders or receive any subscriptions on which the money has not been actually paid at the Company's office before the time of such advance.
Subscriptions will be received in Gettysburg, Pa., by the FIRST NATIONAL BANK and GETTYSBURG NATIONAL BANK, and in New York
At the COMPANY'S OFFICE, No. 20 NASSAU STREET
AND BY
JOHN J. CISCO & SON, BANKERS, No. 59 WALL St.,
And by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.
Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.
A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices or to any of the advertised agents.
JOHN J. CISCO, Treasurer, New York.

The Farmer and Housekeeper.

[For the Star and Sentinel.

It is a question now whether our Sorghum mills can manufacture Sugar from the Beet without much addition to their machinery.—We think a trial would be advisable, as Sorghum is not proving profitable. Sugar has been profitably manufactured from the Beet for many years in France. The difficulty of getting Sorghum to mature sufficiently to produce Syrup in profitable quantity, together with the necessity of immediate manufacture when frosted, and its delicacy during the early growth of the plants, will forever make it an unprofitable crop.

The Beet need not be grown to full maturity for the best yield of Sugar, and it can be harvested and stored for some weeks without loss.

Rat and Roach Exterminators are largely made up of Phosphorus, a highly combustable article, and if subjected to friction in close proximity to straw or other material of the same nature, might cause fire. A Lady informs me she put a box in her pocket, the lid of which she supposed had got loose and rubbed until she found her clothing on fire. Lucifer matches are an example of the highly flammable nature of the article.

In a conversation with a New England lady a few days ago she spoke disparagingly of the custom in Pennsylvania which makes women white-wash fence, and do such light out door work. We don't see the impropriety of ladies doing light out-door work in fine weather, or even feeding the pigs, if there is no one at hand to attend to it. New England intelligence is commendable, but such "Yankee notions" are not. C.

ROOT CROPS FOR FEEDING.

We believe there is a steady increase in the cultivation of turnips, parsnips, beets and carrots, for feeding cattle. Intelligent men who have tried the experiment fairly are not content to go back again to feeding with hay and grain exclusively. There is a great craving among cattle for something succulent and juicy in the winter, that is best met by these roots. The animals thrive better, and other food goes further, for this change in the diet. We have no doubt that the cultivation of roots as field crops would extend much more rapidly if farmers knew how easily they could be raised. With suitable implements nearly all the cultivation can be done by horse power. The only occasion for the hand hoe is in the first weeding and in thinning out the plants to make a good stand.—Old ground is better than a fresh-turned sod, as the soil needs to be finely pulverized. We have always had the best results from deep plowing and subsoiling. Fine compost or concentrated fertillizers should be used, one half plowed in and the other half sown broadcast and harrowed in. It is a help to soak beet, carrot, and parsnip seed for a day or two before sowing. Then mix them with superphosphate of lime, and sow with a drill. The young plants make their appearence before the weeds, and the rows are so strongly marked that they can be hoed out with very little labor. The cultivator should be started between the rows as soon as the plants are visible. Very much labor is saved, and larger crops are realized by timely and frequent cultivation. Stir the ground between the rows every ten days until the plants get possession. Parsnips should be put in early in the spring. Carrots sown June 8th make a good crop in the latitude of New York and Rutabagas and White French turnips may be delayed until July 1st. It is easy to raise from 600 to 1000 bushels of roots to the acre at an expense of not more than 15 cents a bushel. Try an acre of roots.—American Agriculturist.

INTERESTING FACTS.

A single grain of barley in four years will produce seven bushels.——The Canadian Farmer says that thistles may be exterminated in half a dozen years by thoroughly plowing and cultivating the land for three years and then seeding it down and mowing it for two or three years.——Early cut hay contains one half more nutriment than that made from grass thoroughly ripened. Haying should begin before the grass is quite ready to cut, else much of the grass will not be cut early enough.——It is better to buy tools early in the season. There is a larger stock to select from and more leisure in which to look about for the best articles.——Narrow stalls are cruelties. A horse—and a cow still more—needs room to turn about in comfort. Manger and racks should be low, since it is natural for animals to eat from the ground.——Basket willow makes an excellent material for withes for fence stakes, and similar uses on the farm.——Artichokes are an excellent food for cattle. They grow lustily, will not rot, they require little culture and cattle devour them eagerly, stalks and all.——A weak brine, which can be made for a slight outlay in salt, if poured over a gravel walk, will kill the grass that is always creeping in from the borders. Salt sowed over it will answer an equally good purpose.——Boiling water poured around the foot of peach trees is recommended for killing the borer.——Liberality with garden vegetables brings a good return. Root crops especially should have plenty of room. Thin out the beets, carrots, etc., freely.——Bright red clothing often provokes attacks from animals—why, no one knows. Injuries may be avoided oftentimes by remembering this.——A Maine farmer wonders that the large profits in keeping ducks is so little understood. He thinks they pay better than hens. Streams or ponds are not necessary to their success, a tub of water will do. The larger kinds, Rouen or Aylesbury, are the kinds to keep.——There is an art in grinding tools and the first principle is to hold them square across the stone. That gives a better edge and one less apt to "nick out."——The English papers report that rapedust is an effectual preventive of the potato rot. They also credit it with improving the flavor and mealiness of the tubers.

RECEIPT FOR WHITEWASH.—We find the following receipe for making what is claimed to be superior whitewash, in our exchanges. This whitewash is composed of Paris white and white transparent glue. The proportions are sixteen pounds of the white to a half a pound of the glue. The latter is covered with cold water at night, and in the morning carefully heated, without scorching until dissolved. The Paris white is stirred in with hot water enough to give the proper milky consistency for applying to the walls, and the dissolved glue is then added and thoroughly mixed. It is applied with a brush in the usual way, and if the walls are not very dirty, one coat will prove sufficient.

[illegible] cannot be an unhappy man [illegible] and smiles of a woman to accompany him [illegible] department of life. The world may look [illegible] cheerless without [illegible] his path—but when he [illegible] and feels the tender love of woman, he forgets his troubles, and is comparatively a happy man. He is but half prepared for the journey of life, who takes not with him that friend who will [illegible] him in no extremity, who will [illegible] his sorrows, increase his joys, lift the veil from his heart [illegible] the darkest [illegible]. No man can be miserable who has such a companion, be he ever so poor, despised, and trodden upon by the world.

A SERVANT FOR ALL.

Roth's Improvement for Opening, Closing and Latching Gates,

MAY be attached to any gate and operated from buggy, team or saddle, by one hand, in any desired direction from the gate—opened and closed from one point, at any distance from the gate. This improvement is simple and cheap, yet perfect and strong; will not be disarranged by the sagging of the gate, nor by the frost raising the posts; may be made at a country blacksmith's, and easily attached to a gate. The undersigned, having the Right for Adams county, will sell Township and Farm Rights of this improvement.

Also, ROTH & SHANE'S AMERICAN LEVER GATE—which will be found valuable and convenient to all who have gates to drive through—as they remain by their team, open, close and latch a gate, without the necessity of getting in the wet or mud.

"Our OWN Make" of "UNION SKIRTS," Eleven Tape Trails, from 20 to 50 springs, $1.20 to $2.50. Plain, Six Tapes, 20 to 50 springs, from 95 Cents to $2.00. These Skirts are better than those sold by other establishments as first class goods, and at much lower prices.

"Our OWN Make" of "CHAMPION SKIRTS" are in every way superior to all other Hoop Skirts before the public, and only have to be examined or worn to convince every one of the fact. Manufactured of the best linen-finished English Steel Springs, very superior tapes, and the style of the metallic fastenings and manner of securing them surpass for durability and excellence any other Skirt in this country, and are lighter, more elastic, will wear longer, give more satisfaction, and are really cheaper than all others. Every lady should try them. They are being sold extensively by Merchants throughout this and the adjoining states at very moderate prices. If you want the best, ask for "Hopkin's Champion Skirt." If you do not find them, get the merchant with whom you deal to order them for you, or come or send direct to us. Merchants will find our different grades of Skirts exactly what they need, and we especially invite them to call and examine our extensive assortment, or send for Wholesale Price List.

BOOTS, SHOES, HATS & MILLINERY GOODS,

I call the attention of my customers and the community to my large stock of goods, I am offering at lower rates than they have been sold for years, at prices which cannot fail to strike the purchaser as cheap. With every facility for purchasing goods at as low figures as any in the trade, I am also prepared to meet competition on low prices from any quarter. Prompt conformity to the lowest market prices is my established rule. E. HITESHEW.

REMOVAL!

THE GETTYSBURG SKYLIGHT GALLERY.

THE undersigned takes pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Gettysburg and the public generally that he has removed from his old rooms on West Middle street, to the new building nearly opposite the store of Fahnestock Brothers. The room he now occupies, has been recently fitted up expressly for his business. The location is an admirable one, enabling him to take pictures in all shades of weather, and with a promptness unequaled anywhere else.

LIFE-LIKE PHOTOGRAPHS,

of every size and description, executed in the finest style particular attention given to the CARTE-DE-VISITE, and in copying AMBROTYPES and DAGUERREOTYPES of deceased friends. Also—

THE GETTYSBURG GEMS,

a new style of picture which has become very popular with the public, not only for their beauty, but cheapness and convenience. SIXTEEN for ONE DOLLAR only. Also—THE PORCELAIN PICTURES, which for their beauty and durability are unsurpassed.

Wearers prepared to carry out the business in all its various branches, and having had considerable experience we run no risk in

GUARANTEEING PERFECT SATISFACTION.
